8. Follow the dialogue;

Mother; where are you doing?

Daughter: need to go out of town on an office work.

Mother: whom are you going with? What will relatives and neighbours think?

Daughter: what's wrong with an office tour? If I don't go, I will never get a good appraisal.

Mother: just keep quite. Adjust. You are a girl?

Analyze this situation with the help of the following thoughts-

- a. What is the gender issue in this?
- b. What does the dialogue tell you about our culture and the society we live in?
- c. Is this kind of talks common in families?
- d. How would "you" react in such situations? Give some motivational talk to the girl. Help her gain some confidence.
